

Letter of Recommendation

9 May 2026
Rohit Raut

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Mr. Rohit Raut for future professional opportunities. During his time at Apex Labs, Rohit worked as a valuable member of our Engineering Team and consistently demonstrated strong technical skills, dedication, and professionalism.

Rohit played an important role in the development of our applications, contributing extensively to both frontend and backend development. He showed strong problem solving abilities, technical understanding, and the capability to handle responsibilities efficiently across the development process.

He was responsible for backend functionality, API integrations, database management, and frontend implementation, ensuring smooth performance and a seamless user experience. His ability to learn quickly and adapt in a fastpaced environment made him a dependable part of the team.

Apart from his technical capabilities, Rohit worked well collaboratively, maintained professionalism, and consistently delivered quality work within deadlines.

I am confident that he will continue to perform exceptionally well in his future endeavors and will be a valuable asset to any organization.

I wish him all the best for his future opportunities.

Sincerely,
Utkarsh
